2019 -- H 5740

LC001631

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2019

_____

AN ACT

RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES -- WEAPONS

Introduced By: Representatives Caldwell, Ackerman, Williams, McEntee, and Craven

Date Introduced: February 27, 2019

Referred To: House Judiciary

(Attorney General)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11-47-60.1 of the General Laws in Chapter 11-47 entitled
"Weapons" is hereby amended to read as follows:

11-47-60.1. Safe storage.

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

(a) Nothing in this section shall be construed to reduce or limit any existing right to purchase and own firearms and/or ammunition or to provide authority to any state or local agency to infringe upon the privacy of any family, home or business except by lawful warrant.

(b) It shall be unlawful to store or keep any firearm in any place unless the weapon is secured in a locked container, or equipped with a tamper resistant mechanical lock or other safety device, properly engaged so as to render the weapon inoperable by any person other than the owner or other lawfully authorized user. For purposes of this section, the weapon shall not be deemed stored or kept if carried by or under the control of the owner or other lawfully authorized user. Violations of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b)(c) A person who stores or leaves on premises under his or her control a loaded firearm and who knows or reasonably should know that a child is likely to gain access to the firearm without the permission of the child's parent or guardian, and the child obtains access to the firearm and causes injury to himself or herself or any other person with the firearm, is guilty of the crime of criminal storage of a firearm and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned for not more than one

the following occurs:  (1) The child obtains the firearm as a result of an illegal entry of any premises by a person or an illegal taking of the firearm from the premises of the owner without permission the owner;  (2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable person would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that a individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleguiviolation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.
the following occurs:  (1) The child obtains the firearm as a result of an illegal entry of any premises by a person or an illegal taking of the firearm from the premises of the owner without permission the owner;  (2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable person would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-deferror defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleguiviolation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	2	the age of sixteen (16) years eighteen (18) years.
(1) The child obtains the firearm as a result of an illegal entry of any premises by a person or an illegal taking of the firearm from the premises of the owner without permission the owner;  (2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable person would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	3	(c)(d) The provisions of subsection (b)(c) of this section shall not apply whenever any of person or an illegal taking of the firearm from the premises of the owner without permission the owner;  (2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable person would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	4	the following occurs:
the owner;  (2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable pers would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-deferror or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	5	(1) The child obtains the firearm as a result of an illegal entry of any premises by any
would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that to individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleging violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	6	person or an illegal taking of the firearm from the premises of the owner without permission of
would believe to be secured;  (3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that to individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or lecustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	7	the owner;
individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or lacustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	8	(2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location which a reasonable person individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;  (4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;  (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	9	would believe to be secured;
(4) The firearm is locked with a locking device; (5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person; (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or leads to custody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleged violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	10	(3) The firearm is carried on the person or within such a close proximity so that the
(5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defer or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian or child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	11	individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person;
or defense of another person;  (6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	12	(4) The firearm is locked with a locking device;
(6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or locustody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	13	(5) The child obtains or obtains and discharges the firearm in a lawful act of self-defense custody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstance that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	14	or defense of another person;
that a child is likely to be present on the premises.  (d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	15	(6) The person who keeps a loaded firearm on any premises which is under his or her
(d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	16	custody or control has no reasonable expectations, based on objective facts and circumstances,
child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	17	that a child is likely to be present on the premises.
department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on to person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an allege violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	18	(d)(e)(1) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of a person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleg violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	19	child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the attorney general's violation.  (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	20	department general shall consider among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the
(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	21	person who has allegedly violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute an alleged injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in who the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	22	violation.
25 the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.	23	(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a parent or guardian of a child who is
	24	injured or who dies of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which
SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.	25	the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner.
	26	SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.

year, or both. For purposes of this section, a "child" is defined as any person who has not attained

LC001631

EXPLANATION

BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OF

AN ACT

RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES -- WEAPONS

***