

2019 -- S 0815

LC002059

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2019

SENATE RESOLUTION

PROCLAIMING APRIL 30, 2019, AS "THE STATE DAY OF THE COOPERATIVE" IN RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Senators Cano, Nesselbush, Ruggerio, Ciccone, and Bell

Date Introduced: April 30, 2019

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, Worker-owned cooperatives are business enterprises that are owned and 2 governed by their employees and have two common characteristics, member-owners invest in and 3 own the business together and share the enterprise's profits, and decision-making is democratic, 4 with each member having one vote; and

5 WHEREAS, In 2012, the United Nations declared "The Year of Cooperatives" and 6 encouraged governments "to establish policies, laws, and regulations conducive to cooperative 7 formation and growth"; and

8 WHEREAS, Rhode Island provided for the creation of Worker-Owned Cooperatives as a 9 recognized form of business incorporation with unique characteristics, through legislation that 10 allows workers and investors to form workers' cooperatives and specifically aimed at 11 empowering workers; and

12 WHEREAS, Worker-Owned Cooperatives have a long and proud history of building 13 wealth, security, equality, resiliency, solidarity, and hope for individuals and families, especially 14 in those communities and among those populations historically disadvantaged; and

15 WHEREAS, Because Worker-Owned Cooperatives are owned by their workers, they 16 concentrate as much on creating lasting and meaningful employment and good, healthy working 17 conditions as they do on generating profits for the owners/workers; and

18 WHEREAS, Worker-Owned Cooperatives have as their express purpose and charter the 19 increase of equity, participation in democratic governance, control of working conditions,

1 security, and control of economic destiny for their members; and

2 WHEREAS, The diverse communities of Rhode Island offer myriad opportunities for 3 entrepreneurship, innovation, development, and investment by Worker-Owned Cooperatives,
4 whose members hail directly from those communities and whose business activities directly serve 5 those communities and whose actions are directly accountable to those communities; and

6 WHEREAS, Conversion of businesses to Worker-Owned Cooperatives to avoid closure
7 or sale to out-of-state entities, represents a sound and creative response by this State to the 8 inevitable retirement of Rhode Island small business owners; now, therefore be it

9 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations 10 hereby proclaims April 30, 2019, as "The State Day of the Cooperative" in order to celebrate and 11 promote the proliferation and growth of Worker-Owned Cooperatives in our State - businesses 12 which have demonstrated the ability to bring "the economic benefits of a fulfilling life with a 13 good job" along with dignity and self-determination, to individuals and communities around the 14 State; and be it further

15 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 16 transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Fuerza Laboral/Power of Workers.

=====
LC002059
=====