Cortvriend, Ajello, Fogarty, and Shallcross Smith

Date Introduced: March 30, 2021

Referred To: House read and passed

1           WHEREAS, It is with great sadness that this House has learned of the passing of Stephen 2 J. Springer, the devoted husband of Virginia McGinn, and the brother of Nancy Ellen Russen and 3 her husband, Herbert, Phyllis Ventura and her husband, David, and the late Harold "Buddy" 4 Springer of Tiverton; and

5           WHEREAS, A Providence native, Mr. Springer had also been a resident of Chepachet, 6 and over the past ten years, had made his home in the Town of Barrington; and

7           WHEREAS, For thirty-five years, Mr. Springer served and protected the residents of the 8 City of Providence within the City's Police Department, retiring at the rank of Detective. Upon 9 his retirement, he worked as an inspector in the office of the Rhode Island Attorney General from 10 2004 to 2017; and

11           WHEREAS, Mr. Springer's dedication and service to the community and his profession
12 earned him the Medal of Valor in 1984, the Rhode Island Justice Assistance "Neil Houston 13 Award" in 2001, and induction into the Rhode Island Criminal Justice Hall of Fame in 2018; and

14           WHEREAS, Admired and revered, Mr. Springer earned numerous accolades from his 15 "Brothers in Blue" including, "an unstoppable investigator, a true professional, a great detective, 16 and just a tenacious investigator"; and

17           WHEREAS, In addition to his family and police work, Mr. Springer was described as a 18 "renaissance man" who enjoyed woodworking, restoring bicycles, and telling "decades-old stories 19 rich in detail"; and

1           WHEREAS, Detective Springer faced many challenges over the course of his career and 2 there is no doubt that he has left this world a far safer and better place because of his life's 3 endeavors. He will be dearly missed; now, therefore be it

4           RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island hereby 5 recognizes and honors the dedicated service of Retired Detective Stephen Springer and extends 6 our deepest sympathies to his entire family on his passing; and be it further
