17 (a) Application. An eligible graduate claiming an award under this chapter shall submit to 18 the commerce corporation an application in the manner that the commerce corporation shall 19 prescribe.

20 (b) Upon receipt of a proper application from an applicant who meets all of the eligibility 21 requirements, the commerce corporation shall select applicants on a competitive basis to receive 22 credits for up to a maximum amount for each service period of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for 23 an associate's degree holder, four thousand dollars ($4,000) for a bachelor's degree holder, and six 24 thousand dollars ($6,000) for a graduate or post-graduate degree holder, but not to exceed the 25 education loan repayment expenses incurred by such taxpayer during each service period 26 completed, for up to four (4) consecutive service periods provided that the taxpayer continues to 27 meet the eligibility requirements throughout the eligibility period. The commerce corporation shall 28 delegate the selection of the applicants that are to receive awards to ~~a~~ one or more fellowship
29 committees to be convened by the commerce corporation and promulgate the selection procedures 30 the fellowship committee or committees will use, which procedures shall require that the 31 ~~committee's~~ consideration of applications be conducted on a name-blind and employer-blind basis
32 and that the applications and other supporting documents received or reviewed by the fellowship 33 committee or committees shall be redacted of the applicant's name, street address, and other 34 personally-identifying information as well as the applicant's employer's name, street address, and

1 other employer-identifying information. The commerce corporation shall determine the 2 composition of the fellowship committee or committees and the selection procedures it will use in 3 consultation with the state's chambers of commerce or the Rhode Island department of education, 4 as appropriate.

5 (c) The credits awarded under this chapter shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of 6 the education loan repayment expenses ~~incurred~~ paid by such taxpayer during each service period 7 completed for up to four (4) consecutive service periods. Tax credits shall be issued annually to the 8 taxpayer upon proof that (i) the taxpayer has actually incurred and paid such education loan 9 repayment expenses; (ii) the taxpayer continues to meet the eligibility requirements throughout the 10 service period; (iii) The award shall not exceed the original loan amount plus any capitalized 11 interest less award previously claimed under this section; and (iv) that the taxpayer claiming an 12 award is current on his or her student loan repayment obligations.

13 (d) In consultation with the Rhode Island department of education, the commerce
14 corporation shall set guidelines for the proportion of awards to be made to eligible high-demand
15 STEM teachers so long as no more than one hundred (100) and no more than twenty-five percent
16 (25%) of the awards issued in a calendar year are to eligible high-demand STEM teachers.

17 ~~(e)~~(e) The commerce corporation shall not commit to overall awards in excess of the 18 amount contained in the fund.

19 ~~(f)~~(f) The commerce corporation shall reserve seventy percent (70%) of the awards issued 20 in a calendar year to applicants who are permanent residents of the state of Rhode Island or who 21 attended an institution of higher education located in Rhode Island when they incurred the 22 education loan expenses to be repaid.

23 ~~(g)~~(g) In administering award, the commerce corporation shall:

24 (1) Require suitable proof that an applicant meets the eligibility requirements for award 25 under this chapter;

26 (2) Determine the contents of applications and other materials to be submitted in support 27 of an application for award under this chapter; and

28 (3) Collect reports and other information during the eligibility period for each award to 29 verify that a taxpayer continues to meet the eligibility requirements for an award.

30 42-64.26-8. Carry forward and redemption of tax credits.

31 (a) If the amount of the tax credit allowed under this chapter exceeds the taxpayer's total 32 tax liability for the year in which the credit is allowed, the amount of such credit that exceeds the 33 taxpayer's tax liability may be carried forward and applied against the taxes imposed for the 34 succeeding four (4) years, or until the full credit is used, whichever occurs first.

1 (b) The tax credit allowed under this chapter may be used as a credit against personal 2 income taxes imposed under chapter 30 of title 44.

3 (c) The division of taxation shall at the request of a taxpayer redeem such credits in whole 4 or in part for one hundred percent (100%) of the value of the tax credit.

5 (d) Any award made ~~amounts paid to a taxpayer for the redemption of tax credits allowed~~
6 pursuant to this section shall be exempt from taxation under title 44 of the General Laws.

7 42-64.26-12. Sunset.

8 No incentives or credits shall be authorized pursuant to this chapter after December 31, 9 ~~2020~~ 2023.

10 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
