1 SECTION 1. Title 16 of the General Laws entitled "EDUCATION" is hereby amended by 2 adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 110

4 AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY EDUCATION IN ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY

5 SCHOOL

6 16-110-1. Legislative findings.

7 The General Assembly hereby finds and declares that:

8 (1) Rhode Island holds a unique place in history with the establishment of its Royal Charter
9 on July 8, 1663, that marked the first time that a sovereign leader signed a charter guaranteeing that 10 individuals within a society were free to practice the religion of their choice without any 11 interference from the government.

12 (2) As Rhode Island became the first American colony to declare its independence from 13 Great Britain on May 4, 1776, it simultaneously was one of the most active slave ports in British 14 North America within the Transatlantic Slave Trade transporting thousands of enslaved Africans
15 to the colony, with the first documented slave ship arriving at Newport in 1696.

16 (3) The contributions of African Heritage Peoples from across the African Diaspora
17 representing all walks of life and their endeavors to learn and thrive throughout history and make 18 unforgettable marks in our state and nation as artists, scientists, educators, businesspeople,
19 influential thinkers, members of the faith community, athletes, and political and governmental

1 leaders, reflects the greatness of the state of Rhode Island.

2 (4) The United States Department of Education says "education is primarily a state and
3 local responsibility in the United States. It is states and communities, as well as public and private 4 organizations of all kinds that establish schools and college and develop curricula."

5 (5) The state of Rhode Island also has previously demonstrated its concerns and interests
6 regarding raising awareness on the subject of African Heritage and History through the work of the 7 1696 Historical Commission as established by the general assembly and signed into law on July 1, 8 2014 and was tasked with developing a comprehensive African Heritage History curriculum for 9 Rhode Island public schools from kindergarten through grade twelve (K-12) and said commission
10 led by our secretary of state and comprised of scholars, civic and educational leaders developed
11 and submitted a comprehensive report that included units of instruction and educational resources.

12 (6) With the unifying call for Black Lives Matter, racial reconciliation, and social justice
13 during the summer of 2020, and citizen equity being reflected across the state, nation and world,
14 the establishment of an African Heritage History curriculum in Rhode Island is long overdue. Given
15 the importance of the issue to the political affairs of the United States, as well as the responsibility
16 of the state to educate its citizens, it is a fundamental responsibility of the state of Rhode Island to 17 ensure that the critical subject of African Heritage History is included as part of the curriculum in 18 all public schools.

19 (7) It is the judgment of the Rhode Island general assembly to encourage that every board
20 of education in the state shall include instruction on the subject of African Heritage History studies
21 where in an appropriate place in the curriculum, for all elementary and secondary students.

22 16-110-2. Definitions.
