

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2021

A N A C T

RELATING TO DOMESTIC RELATIONS-- DIVORCE AND SEPARATION--CHILD SUPPORT

Introduced By: Senators Paolino, Pearson, Seveney, Felag, and Archambault

Date Introduced: March 04, 2021

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 15-5-16.2 of the General Laws in Chapter 15-5 entitled "Divorce and 2 Separation" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 15-5-16.2. Child support.

4 (a) In a proceeding for divorce, divorce from bed and board, a miscellaneous petition 5 without the filing of divorce proceedings, or child support, the court shall order either or both 6 parents owing a duty of support to a child to pay an amount based upon a formula and guidelines 7 adopted by an administrative order of the family court. If, after calculating support based upon 8 court established formula and guidelines, the court, in its discretion, finds the order would be 9 inequitable to the child or either parent, the court shall make findings of fact and shall order either 10 or both parents owing a duty of support to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's 11 support after considering all relevant factors including, but not limited to:

12 (1) The financial resources of the child;

13 (2) The financial resources of the custodial parent;

14 (3) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been 15 dissolved;

16 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the child and his or her educational needs; and

17 (5) The financial resources and needs of the noncustodial parent, provided, that in 18 establishing a child support order, incarceration may not be treated as voluntary unemployment.

1 (b) The court may, if in its discretion it deems it necessary or advisable, order child support
2 and education costs for children attending high school at the time of their eighteenth (18th) birthday
3 and for ninety (90) days after graduation, ~~but in no case beyond their nineteenth (19th) birthday.~~ If, 4 however, any children are attending a two (2) year or four (4) year college and the children still 5 live with the custodial parent, a court, in its discretion, may order the child support extended until 6 age twenty-one (21). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court, in its discretion, may order child 7 support, in the case of a child with a severe physical or mental impairment still living with or under 8 the care of a parent, beyond the child's emancipation as defined above. The court shall consider the 9 following factors when making its determination: (1) The nature and extent of the disability; (2) 10 The cost of the extraordinary medical expenses; (3) The ability of the child to earn income; (4) The 11 financial resources of the child; (5) The financial resources of the parents; (6) The inability of the 12 primary caregiver of the child to sustain gainful employment on a full-time basis due to the care 13 necessitated by the child. The onset of the disability must have occurred prior to the emancipation 14 event. If a child support order for a child with a severe physical or mental impairment has been 15 terminated, suspended, or expired, the court shall consider the factors in this paragraph and has the 16 discretion to order child support for this child prospectively based upon established child support 17 guidelines. The court may periodically review the case to determine if circumstances warrant the 18 continuation of child support.

19 (c)(1) The court may, if in its discretion it deems it necessary or advisable, appoint an 20 attorney or a guardian ad litem to represent the interest of a minor or dependent child with respect 21 to his or her support, custody, and visitation.

22 (i) In determining whether an appointment should be made, the court shall consider the 23 extent to which a guardian ad litem may assist in providing information concerning the best interest 24 of the child; the age of the child; the wishes of the parents, as well as their financial resources; the 25 nature of the proceeding including the level of contentiousness, allegations of child abuse, or 26 domestic violence and the risk of harm to the child if a guardian is not appointed; or conflicts of 27 interest between the child and parents or siblings;

28 (ii) The guardian ad litem shall be appointed from a list of persons properly credentialed 29 pursuant to administrative orders of the chief judge of the family court;

30 (iii) The court shall enter an order of appointment stating the specific assignment, the 31 optional and mandatory duties of the guardian ad litem, the guardian's access to the child and 32 confidential information regarding the child, and a provision for payment of the costs and fees of 33 the guardian ad litem;

34 (iv) Communications made to a guardian, including those made by a child, are not

1 privileged and may or may not be disclosed to the parties, the court, or to professionals providing 2 services to the child or the family;

3 (v) The guardian ad litem shall meet with the child, conduct an investigation, and upon 4 request of the court, shall prepare an oral or written report that contains the procedural background 5 of the case, identification of all persons interviewed and other sources of information, a statement 6 of the child's emotional, medical, educational, and social service needs, the child's wishes, and other 7 factors relevant to the court's determination regarding the best interests of the child;

8 (vi) Any written report of the guardian ad litem shall be marked as a full exhibit in the 9 proceedings, subject to cross-examination;

10 (vii) If the guardian ad litem requests confidential healthcare information and consent is 11 withheld, he or she shall apply to the court for leave to obtain such information after compliance 12 with § 5-37.3-6.1;

13 (viii) The guardian ad litem shall be given notice of and should appear at all proceedings 14 in family court that affect the interests of the child;

15 (ix) A person serving as a guardian ad litem under this section acts as the court's agent and 16 is entitled to quasi-judicial immunity for acts performed within the scope of the duties of the 17 guardian ad litem;

18 (x) The chief judge of the family court shall issue, through administrative orders, rules 19 governing the appointment and performance of guardians ad litem in domestic proceedings.

20 (2) After a decree for support has been entered, the court may, from time to time upon the 21 petition of either party, or by the state in accordance with subsection (c)(3) of this section, review 22 and alter its decree relative to the amount of support and the payment of it, and may make any 23 decree relative to it that it might have made in the original suit. The decree may be made retroactive 24 in the court's discretion only to the date that notice of a petition to modify was given to the adverse 25 party if the court finds that a substantial change in circumstances has occurred; provided, that the 26 court shall set forth in its decision the specific findings of fact that show a substantial change in 27 circumstances and upon which findings of facts the court has decided to make the decree 28 retroactive. In modifying the order, incarceration may not be treated as voluntary unemployment 29 that would prevent the motion from being heard or result in a denial of the motion. The child support 30 order shall continue in full force and effect, by wage withholding, after the youngest child is 31 emancipated, and shall be applied towards any arrearage due and owing, as indicated on the child-32 support computer system. Upon satisfaction of the arrears due and owing the child-support order 33 shall be automatically suspended and wage withholding terminated without the necessity of 34 returning to family court.

1 (3) When the department of human services, office of child support services, becomes 2 aware of the fact, through an electronic data exchange of information with the department of 3 corrections, or by any other means, that the noncustodial parent is or will be incarcerated for one 4 hundred eighty (180) days or more, the department may automatically file a motion to modify or a 5 motion for relief, to be heard before the court via a video conference hearing or other type of 6 hearing. A specific request for the filing of this motion need not be made in writing or otherwise 7 by the incarcerated, noncustodial parent, but the parent shall be notified of the hearing and provided 8 a meaningful opportunity to respond. The court shall schedule a hearing to determine the 9 noncustodial parent's ability to pay, taking into consideration the assets and financial resources and 10 any benefits the noncustodial parent may be receiving, the length of the sentence, and shall modify 11 or suspend all child support orders, after setting forth in its decision specific findings of fact that 12 show circumstances upon which the court has decided to modify or suspend all child support orders 13 during the period of incarceration. Upon the obligor's release, the department of human services, 14 office of child support services, shall file a motion for support, and a hearing shall be scheduled to 15 determine the obligor's ability to begin paying child support pursuant to the child support guidelines 16 in effect. This section does not apply to those individuals who are serving a sentence for criminal 17 nonsupport in state or federal prison, or who are found to be in civil contempt for failure to pay 18 child support and incarcerated for that reason.

19 (d)(1) In a proceeding to enforce a child support order, or a spousal support order for a 20 custodial parent having custody of a minor child, the court or its magistrate may assign to the 21 obligee such tangible personal property of the obligor that will be sufficient to satisfy the child or 22 spousal support arrearage owed. The court or its magistrate, after a hearing, shall establish the 23 amount of the child or spousal support arrearage, and the nature and value of the tangible personal 24 property. To effect the assignment, the court or its magistrate may order the obligor to execute and 25 deliver the documents of title that may be necessary to complete the transfer of title to the property, 26 and may order the obligor to deliver possession of the property to the obligee. Whenever the obligor 27 fails to comply with the order assigning the property, the order of assignment shall be regarded as 28 a judgment vesting title to the property in the obligor as fully and completely as if the obligor had 29 executed and delivered the documents of title.

30 (2) Any order for child support issued by the family court shall contain a provision 31 requiring either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child to obtain health insurance 32 coverage for the child when coverage is available to the parent or parents through their employment 33 without cost or at a reasonable cost. "Reasonable cost" shall be defined in accordance with 34 guidelines adopted by administrative order of the family court in conjunction with the child support

1 guidelines.

2 (3) Any existing child support orders may be modified in accordance with this subsection
3 unless the court makes specific written findings of fact that take into consideration the best interests
4 of the child and conclude that a child support order or medical order would be unjust or 5 inappropriate in a particular case.

6 (4) In addition, the national medical support notice shall be issued with respect to all orders 7 issued, enforced, or modified on or after October 1, 2002, in accordance with chapter 29 of title 15.
8 The notice shall inform the employer of provisions in the child support order, for healthcare 9 coverage for the child, and contain instructions on how to implement this coverage. In lieu of the 10 court ordering the noncustodial parent to obtain or maintain healthcare coverage for the child, the 11 court may order the noncustodial parent to contribute a weekly cash amount towards the medical 12 premium for healthcare coverage paid by the state of Rhode Island and/or the custodial parent. The 13 method to determine a reasonable weekly amount shall be addressed in the family court 14 administrative order pertaining to the child support guidelines.

15 (e) In a proceeding to establish support, the court in its discretion may, after opportunity 16 for a hearing, issue a temporary order for child support payable into the registry of the court and to 17 be held pending entry of judgment. In the event of a final adjudication requiring no payment or 18 payments in an amount less than those payments that have been made pursuant to a temporary order 19 under this section, the defendant shall be entitled to a refund of all or a portion of the amounts paid.

20 (f) In any proceeding to establish support, or in any case in which an obligor owes past-21 due support, for a child or children receiving public assistance pursuant to chapter 5.1 of title 40, 22 the court or its magistrate, upon a finding that an able-bodied absent parent obligor is unemploye d, 23 underemployed, or lacks sufficient income or resources from which to make payment of support 24 equal to the public assistance payment for the child or children, or is unable to pay the arrearages 25 in accordance with a payment plan, may order that parent to perform unpaid community service for 26 at least twenty (20) hours per week through community service placements arranged and supervised 27 by the department of human services or to participate in any work activities that the court deems 28 appropriate. The performance of community service shall not be a basis for retroactive suspension 29 of arrears due and owing.

30 (g)(1) In any proceeding to establish support for a minor child whose adjudicated parent is 31 a minor (minor-parent), the court or its magistrate may order a grandparent of the minor child to 32 reimburse the department of human services in an amount not to exceed the total amount of cash 33 assistance benefits paid to or for the minor child pursuant to chapter 5.1 of title 40 until the minor-34 parent reaches the age of eighteen (18), less any payment made to the department by the minor

1 parent.

2 (2) The obligation of reimbursement for the minor child shall be the joint and several 3 responsibility of the minor parent and the grandparent(s) until the minor parent reaches the age of 4 eighteen (18); provided, that each joint obligor shall have a right of contribution against each joint 5 obligor, which right shall be enforceable by an action in the family court.

6 (h)(1) All support orders established or modified in the state on or after October 1, 1998, 7 shall be recorded with the Rhode Island family court department of human services child-support-8 enforcement computer system, which maintains the official registry of support orders entered in 9 accordance with applicable administrative orders issued by the Rhode Island family court. The 10 support order shall be recorded whether or not services are being provided under the IV-D state 11 plan.

12 (2) The obligee to a paternity or child support proceeding shall be required to file with the 13 family court, upon the entry of the order, the appropriate form as provided by family court that 14 includes the full name of the parties, residential and mailing address, telephone number, drivers 15 license number, social security number, and the name, address, and telephone number of the 16 employer. The form shall also include the full order amount and date and amount of arrearages if 17 any, the name of the child(ren), their date of birth, address, social security number, and any other 18 information as required by administrative order.

19 (3) After this, each party is required to file an amended form, whenever any of the 20 information contained on the original form has been changed in any way, within ten (10) days of 21 the change. The information shall be entered in the child-support-enforcement computer system 22 within five (5) business days of receipt of the amended form.

23 (i) In any subsequent child-support-enforcement action between the parties, upon sufficient 24 showing that diligent effort has been made to ascertain the location of such a party, the court may 25 deem state due process requirements for notice and service of process to be met with respect to the 26 party, upon service by first class mail or, where appropriate, by service as specified in the Rhode 27 Island rules of procedure for domestic relations for the family court of Rhode Island, of written 28 notice to the most recent residential or employer address of record.

29 [See § 12-1-15 of the General Laws.]

30 SECTION 2. Section 15-9-1 of the General Laws in Chapter 15-9 entitled "Support of 31 Children [See Title 16 Chapter 97 - The Rhode Island Board of Education Act]" is hereby amended 32 to read as follows:

33 15-9-1. Duty of parent to pay support and maintenance to the agency or person having 34 custody of the child.

1 (a) Whenever the department of children, youth and families shall pay for the support and 2 maintenance of any child pursuant to §§ 42-72-13 and 42-72-14, or whenever another department, 3 agency, society, institution, or person having the charge, care, or custody of a child shall pay for 4 the support and maintenance of the child, the court shall order either or both parents owing a duty 5 of support to a child to pay an amount based upon a formula and guidelines adopted by an 6 administrative order of the family court. If, after calculating support based upon court established 7 formula and guidelines, the court, in its discretion, finds the proposed order would be inequitable 8 to the child or either parent, the court shall make findings of fact and shall order either or both 9 parents owing a duty of support to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support 10 after considering all relevant factors, including, but not limited to:

11 (1) The financial resources of the child;

12 (2) The financial resources of the custodial parent;

13 (3) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been 14 dissolved;

15 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the child and his or her educational needs; and 16 (5) The financial resources and needs of the non-custodial parent.

17 (b) If it deems necessary or advisable, the court may order child support and education 18 costs for children attending high school at the time of their eighteenth (18th) birthday and for ninety 19 (90) days after graduation, ~~but in no case beyond their nineteenth (19th) birthday.~~ If, however, any 20 children are attending a two (2) year or four (4) year college, and the children still live with the 21 custodial parent, a court, in its discretion, may order the child support extended until age twenty-22 one (21). In addition, the court may order the support of a child with a severe physical or mental 23 impairment to continue until the twenty-first (21st) birthday of the child.

24 (c) After a decree for support has been entered and upon the petition of either party, the 25 court may review and alter its decree relative to the amount and payment of support. If the court 26 finds that a substantial change in circumstances has occurred, the decree may be made retroactive 27 to the date that notice of a petition to modify was given to the adverse party. In such a case the 28 court shall set forth in its decision the specific findings of fact which show a substantial change in 29 circumstances and why the decree should be made retroactive.

30 (d) Any order for child support issued by the family court shall contain a provision
31 requiring either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child to obtain health insurance 32 coverage for the child when such coverage is available to the parent or parents through their 33 employment without cost or at a reasonable cost. "Reasonable cost" shall be defined in accordance 34 with guidelines adopted by administrative order of the family court in conjunction with the child

1 support guidelines.

2 (e) Any existing child support orders may be modified in accordance with this section
3 unless the court makes specific written findings of fact that take into consideration the best interests
4 of the child and conclude that a child support order or medical order would be unjust or 5 inappropriate in a particular case.

6 (f) In addition, the national medical support notice shall be issued with respect to all orders 7 issued, enforced, or modified on or after October 1, 2002, in accordance with chapter 29 of this 8 title. The notice shall inform the employer of provisions in the child support order for health care 9 coverage for the child and of the method to implement this coverage. In lieu of the court ordering 10 the non-custodial parent to obtain or maintain health care coverage for the child, the court may 11 order the non-custodial parent to contribute a weekly cash amount towards the medical premium 12 for health care coverage paid by the state of Rhode Island and/or the custodial parent. The method 13 to determine a reasonable weekly amount shall be addressed in a family court administrative order 14 pertaining to the child support guidelines.

15 (g) All support orders established or modified in the state on or after October 1, 1998, shall 16 be recorded with the Rhode Island family court/department of administration, division of taxation
17 child support computer enforcement system. The system maintains the official registry of support 18 orders entered in accordance with applicable administrative orders issued by the Rhode Island 19 family court.

20 (h) In any subsequent child support enforcement action between the parties, upon sufficient 21 showing that a diligent effort has been made to ascertain the location of such a party, the court may 22 allow for notice and service of process to be made by first class mail or by service of written notice
23 to the most recent residential or employer address of record, as specified in the Rhode Island rules 24 of procedure for domestic relations for the Family Court of Rhode Island.

25 (i) The department of children, youth, and families shall not seek child support for services 26 to the child which are special education services as defined under state and federal law and pursuant 27 to the regulations of the board of regents for elementary and secondary education governing the 28 special education of students with disabilities, section two, I., 1.0-4.11 and 34 C.F.R. Part 300.

29 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage.
