EXPLANATION

BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OF

AN ACT

RELATING TO INSURANCE -- CLAIMS ADJUSTERS

This act would authorize the department of insurance, within the department of business regulation, in lieu of passing in-state licensing examination, to recognize the competence of an applicant for an insurance claims adjuster license, through an out-of-state proctored examination.

It would also allow the department to grant a nonresident insurance claims adjuster license based on an out-of-state proctored license qualifying examination.

This act would take effect on January 1, 2023.
