1 WHEREAS, Human trafficking, as recognized and defined by the United Nations in the 2 "Trafficking Protocol" is the "recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring or receipt of 3 persons, by means of threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of 4 deception,...for the purpose of exploitation." Exploitation can include forced prostitution and 5 other forms of sexual exploitation as well as forced labor. Women and children are particularly 6 vulnerable to being exploited in these ways; and

7 WHEREAS, It is estimated that between 20 million and 40 million people are currently 8 the victims of human trafficking and are being used as slaves in some capacity. The International 9 Labour Office (ILO), estimates that human trafficking generates approximately $150.2 billion 10 dollars in profit; and

11 WHEREAS, In January of 2018, National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention 12 Month was first observed and $25 million was contributed to the Global Fund to End Modern 13 Slavery, which provided for enhanced collaboration amongst nations and their law enforcement 14 and other community and business organizations in order to dismantle transnational criminal 15 organizations that are involved in human trafficking activities; now, therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby commemorates 17 January of 2022, as "National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month" in the State of 18 Rhode Island; and be it further

19 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 1 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Joseph R.

2 Biden, Jr., the Governor of the State of Rhode Island Daniel McKee, and the Secretary-General of 3 the United Nations, António Guterres.
