30 28-29-2. Definitions.

31 In chapters 29 -- 38 of this title, unless the context otherwise requires:

2 could receive if the employee accepted an actual offer of suitable alternative employment. Earnings
3 capacity can also be established by the court based on evidence of ability to earn, including, but not 4 limited to, a determination of the degree of functional impairment and/or disability, that an 5 employee is capable of employment. The court may, in its discretion, take into consideration the 6 performance of the employee's duty to actively seek employment in scheduling the implementation
7 of the reduction. The employer need not identify particular employment before the court can direct 8 an earnings capacity adjustment. In the event that an employee returns to light duty employment 9 while partially disabled, an earnings capacity shall not be set based upon actual wages earned until 10 the employee has successfully worked at light duty for a period of at least thirteen (13) weeks.

11 (ii) As used under the provisions of this title, "functional impairment" means an anatomical 12 or functional abnormality existing after the date of maximum medical improvement as determined 13 by a medically or scientifically demonstrable finding and based upon the Sixth (6th) edition of the 14 American Medical Association's Guide to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment or comparable 15 publications of the American Medical Association.

16 (iii) In the event that an employee returns to employment at an average weekly wage equal 17 to the employee's pre-injury earnings exclusive of overtime, the employee will be presumed to have 18 regained his/her earning capacity.

19 (4) "Employee" means any person who has entered into the employment of or works under 20 contract of service or apprenticeship with any employer, except that in the case of a city or town
21 other than the city of Providence it shall only mean that class or those classes of employees as may 22 be designated by a city, town, or regional school district in a manner provided in this chapter to 23 receive compensation under chapters 29 -- 38 of this title. It also means any person providing labor 24 or services for remuneration, as opposed to an independent contractor, unless the hiring entity can 25 establish that all of the following conditions are satisfied:

26 (i) The person is free from the control and direction of the hiring entity in connection with 27 the performance of the work, both under the contract for the performance of the work and in fact;

28 (ii) The person performs work that is outside the usual course of the hiring entity's business; 29 and

30 (iii) The person is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, 31 or business, of the same nature as that involved in the work performed. Any person employed by 32 the state of Rhode Island, except for sworn employees of the Rhode Island State Police, or by the 33 Rhode Island Airport Corporation who is otherwise entitled to the benefits of chapter 19 of title 45
34 shall be subject to the provisions of chapters 29 -- 38 of this title for all case management procedures

1 and dispute resolution for all benefits. The term "employee" does not include any individual who 2 is a shareholder or director in a corporation, general or limited partners in a general partnership, a 3 registered limited liability partnership, a limited partnership, or partners in a registered limited 4 liability limited partnership, or any individual who is a member in a limited liability company.
5 These exclusions do not apply to shareholders, directors and members who have entered into the 6 employment of or who work under a contract of service or apprenticeship within a corporation or 7 a limited liability company. The term "employee" also does not include a sole proprietor,
8 independent contractor, or a person whose employment is of a casual nature, and who is employed 9 other than for the purpose of the employer's trade or business, or a person whose services are 10 voluntary or who performs charitable acts, nor shall it include the members of the regularly 11 organized fire and police departments of any town or city except for appeals from an order of the 12 retirement board filed pursuant to the provisions of § 45-21.2-9; provided, however, that it shall 13 include the members of the police and aircraft rescue and firefighting (ARFF) units of the Rhode 14 Island Airport Corporation. Whenever a contractor has contracted with the state, a city, town, or 15 regional school district any person employed by that contractor in work under contract shall not be 16 deemed an employee of the state, city, town, or regional school district as the case may be. Any 17 person who on or after January 1, 1999, was an employee and became a corporate officer shall 18 remain an employee, for purposes of these chapters, unless and until coverage under this act is 19 waived pursuant to § 28-29-8(b) or § 28-29-17. Any person who is appointed a corporate officer 20 between January 1, 1999, and December 31, 2001, and was not previously an employee of the 21 corporation, will not be considered an employee, for purposes of these chapters, unless that 22 corporate officer has filed a notice pursuant to § 28-29-19(c). In the case of a person whose services 23 are voluntary or who performs charitable acts, any benefit received, in the form of monetary 24 remuneration or otherwise, shall be reportable to the appropriate taxation authority but shall not be 25 deemed to be wages earned under contract of hire for purposes of qualifying for benefits under 26 chapters 29 -- 38 of this title. Any reference to an employee who had been injured shall, where the 27 employee is dead, include a reference to his or her dependents as defined in this section, or to his 28 or her legal representatives, or, where he or she is a minor or incompetent, to his or her conservator
29 or guardian. A "seasonal occupation" means those occupations in which work is performed on a 30 seasonal basis of not more than sixteen (16) weeks.

31 (5) "Employer" includes any person, partnership, corporation, or voluntary association, and 32 the legal representative of a deceased employer; it includes the state, and the city of Providence. It 33 also includes each city, town, and regional school district in the state that votes or accepts the 34 provisions of chapters 29 -- 38 of this title in the manner provided in this chapter or is a party to an

1 appeal from an order of the retirement board filed pursuant to the provisions of § 45-21.2-9.

2 (6) "General or special employer":

3 (i) "General employer" includes but is not limited to temporary help companies and 4 employee leasing companies and means a person who for consideration and as the regular course 5 of its business supplies an employee with or without vehicle to another person.

6 (ii) "Special employer" means a person who contracts for services with a general employer 7 for the use of an employee, a vehicle, or both.

8 (iii) Whenever there is a general employer and special employer wherein the general 9 employer supplies to the special employer an employee and the general employer pays or is 10 obligated to pay the wages or salaries of the supplied employee, then, notwithstanding the fact that 11 direction and control is in the special employer and not the general employer, the general employer, 12 if it is subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act or has accepted that Act, shall 13 be deemed to be the employer as set forth in subdivision (5) of this section and both the general
14 and special employer shall be the employer for purposes of §§ 28-29-17 and 28-29-18.

15 (iv) Effective January 1, 2003, whenever a general employer enters into a contract or 16 arrangement with a special employer to supply an employee or employees for work, the special 17 employer shall require an insurer generated insurance coverage certification, on a form prescribed
18 by the department, demonstrating Rhode Island workers' compensation and employer's liability 19 coverage evidencing that the general employer carries workers' compensation insurance with that 20 insurer with no indebtedness for its employees for the term of the contract or arrangement. In the 21 event that the special employer fails to obtain and maintain at policy renewal and thereafter this 22 insurer generated insurance coverage certification demonstrating Rhode Island workers'
23 compensation and employer's liability coverage from the general employer, the special employer 24 is deemed to be the employer pursuant to the provisions of this section. Upon the cancellation or 25 failure to renew, the insurer having written the workers' compensation and employer's liability
26 policy shall notify the certificate holders and the department of the cancellation or failure to renew 27 and upon notice, the certificate holders shall be deemed to be the employer for the term of the 28 contract or arrangement unless or until a new certification is obtained.

29 (7)(i) "Injury" means and refers to personal injury to an employee arising out of and in the 30 course of his or her employment, connected and referable to the employment.

31 (ii) An injury to an employee while voluntarily participating in a private, group, or 32 employer-sponsored carpool, vanpool, commuter bus service, or other rideshare program, having 33 as its sole purpose the mass transportation of employees to and from work shall not be deemed to 34 have arisen out of and in the course of employment. Nothing in the foregoing provision shall be

1 held to deny benefits under chapters 29 -- 38 and chapter 47 of this title to employees such as 2 drivers, mechanics, and others who receive remuneration for their participation in the rideshare
3 program. Provided, that the foregoing provision shall not bar the right of an employee to recover
4 against an employer and/or driver for tortious misconduct.

5 (8) "Maximum medical improvement" means a point in time when any medically 6 determinable physical or mental impairment as a result of injury has become stable and when no
7 further treatment is reasonably expected to materially improve the condition. Neither the need for 8 future medical maintenance nor the possibility of improvement or deterioration resulting from the 9 passage of time and not from the ordinary course of the disabling condition, nor the continuation 10 of a preexisting condition precludes a finding of maximum medical improvement. A finding of 11 maximum medical improvement by the workers' compensation court may be reviewed only where 12 it is established that an employee's condition has substantially deteriorated or improved.

13 (9) "Physician" means medical doctor, surgeon, dentist, licensed psychologist, 14 chiropractor, osteopath, podiatrist, or optometrist, as the case may be.

15 (10) "Suitable alternative employment" means employment or an actual offer of 16 employment which the employee is physically able to perform and will not exacerbate the 17 employee's health condition and which bears a reasonable relationship to the employee's 18 qualifications, background, education, and training. The employee's age alone shall not be 19 considered in determining the suitability of the alternative employment.

20 (11) "Independent contractor" means a person who has filed a notice of designation as 21 independent contractor with the director pursuant to § 28-29-17.1 or as otherwise found by the 22 workers' compensation court.

31 the benefit year shall be fifty-three (53) consecutive calendar weeks if the subsequent filing of a 32 new valid claim immediately following the end of a previous benefit year would result in the 33 overlapping of any quarter of the base period of the prior new claim. In no event shall a new benefit 34 year begin prior to the Sunday next following the end of the old benefit year;

1 (i) For benefit years that begin on or after July 1, 2012, an individual's benefit year will
