13 (iv) Worker safety;

14 (v) Workers' compensation;

15 (vi) Unemployment insurance;

16 (vii) Paid sick leave, paid family leave, and state disability insurance;

17 (viii) The right to organize a union in the workplace;

18 (ix) Prohibitions against retaliation by employers when workers exercise these or any other
19 rights guaranteed by law.

1 (2) The labor movement’s role in winning the protections and benefits described in

5 for those who do not attend college.

6 (b) For pupils in grades eleven (11) and twelve (12), the observances required by this
7 section shall be integrated into the regular school program, consistent with the history-social
8 science framework, but may also include special events after regular school hours. This integration
9 is encouraged, but not required, to occur during workplace readiness week.

10 (c)(1) Beginning August 1, 2025, any minor seeking the signature of a verifying authority
11 on a statement of intent to employ a minor and request for a work permit-certificate of age under

13 authority, a document clearly explaining basic labor rights extended to workers.

14 (2) Topics covered in this document shall include, but are not limited to, those identified
15 in subsections (a)(1)(i) through (ix), inclusive, of this section.

16 (3) The department of labor and training is encouraged to produce, with input from bona

19 consistent with § 28-3-3, ("issuance of limited permission for work by children").

20 (4) The document shall express these labor rights in plain, natural terminology easily
21 understood by the pupil.

22 (5) The document shall be in a physical form in English and shall include both a uniform
23 resource locator (URL) for, and a quick response code linked to, an Internet website with electronic

25 of labor and training, pursuant to subsection (c)(3) of this section.

26 (d) Each school superintendent shall annually send a written notice, detailing requirements

28 resources, to every public high school, including charter schools, at least one month before
29 workplace readiness week.

30 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
