A N A C T

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT -- RHODE ISLAND COMMERCE CORPORATION -- HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

Introduced By: Representatives Speakman, Boylan, Giraldo, Tanzi, Cortvriend, Ajello, Potter, and McGaw

Date Introduced: January 29, 2025

Referred To: House Municipal Government & Housing

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 42-64 of the General Laws entitled "Rhode Island Commerce
2 Corporation" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

3 42-64-13.3. Rhode Island housing champion designation.

4 (a) The commerce corporation shall develop a Rhode Island housing champion designation
5 program for all qualifying municipalities. The Rhode Island housing champion designation
6 program shall be voluntary. Each municipality shall have the option, in its sole discretion, to apply
7 to the commerce corporation to receive the Rhode Island housing champion designation. In 8 exchange for obtaining the Rhode Island housing champion designation, a municipality shall 9 receive preferential access to state resources including, but not limited to, discretionary state 10 infrastructure funds, as available.

11 (b) The corporation shall adopt rules to establish qualifications and procedures for a 12 municipality to receive the Rhode Island housing champion designation. The designation procedure 13 shall be based on a scoring system.

14 (c) Qualifications to receive the Rhode Island housing champion designation shall include:

15 (1) Adoption of such land use regulations and ordinances which the corporation determines 16 to be necessary to promote the development of workforce housing, and other types of housing 17 necessary for the economic development of the state. In this subsection, "land use regulations and 18 ordinances" may include, but are not limited to, zoning ordinances to innovative land use controls,

1 subdivision and the site plan regulations.

2 (2) Training of planning and zoning board members using, training materials and programs, 3 provided by the department that cover the processes, procedures, regulations, and statutes related 4 to the board on which the member serves; approved by the corporation.

5 (3) Implementation of sewer and water infrastructure improvements intended to support 6 the development of workforce housing, and other types of housing necessary for the economic 7 development of the state.

8 (4) Implementation of public transportation, sidewalks, or other walkability infrastructure 9 intended to support the development of workforce housing, and other types of housing necessary 10 for the economic development of the state.

11 (d) Qualifications to receive the Rhode Island housing champion designation may also 12 include, but are not limited to adoption of financial tools that incentivize the development of 13 workforce housing, including adoption of the community revitalization tax relief incentive program 14 and establishment of municipal economic development and revitalization districts.

15 (e) Municipalities that receive a Rhode Island housing champion designation, shall 16 annually report in a form required by the department. The annual report shall include such measures 17 as the corporation may determine including, but not limited to, land use board applications, 18 approvals and building permits.

19 (f) A Rhode Island housing champion designation shall be valid for three (3) years from 20 the date such designation is awarded. A municipality may seek renewal of its Rhode Island housing 21 champion designation for subsequent three (3) year periods. The corporation shall include in the 22 criteria for renewal performance metrics including, but not limited to, the qualifications listed in 23 subsection § 42-64-13.3 (c).

24 (g) Each year the corporation shall develop a report which describes all actions taken 25 related to the operation of the Rhode Island housing champion designation program in the 26 preceding state fiscal year and assesses the overall impact of the Rhode Island housing champion 27 designation program, including an assessment of the additional housing units produced in the state
28 as a result of the program's operation and incentives. The report required by this section shall be 29 submitted to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president of the 30 senate on or before November 1 of each year, beginning in 2026, and upon such submission, the 31 report shall be posted online on the website of the department.

32 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
