29 SECTION 17. Sections 17-29-2 and 17-29-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 17-29 entitled
30 "Voter Choice Act" are hereby amended to read as follows:

31 17-29-2. Legislative declaration.

32 (a) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

33 (1) Majority rule is a fundamental principle of representative democracy, and the state's 34 election laws should uphold and facilitate this principle.

1 (2) In an election where more than two (2) candidates are running for an office, the
2 candidate who receives a plurality of the votes may actually be opposed by the majority of voters.

3 (3) The state’s current voting method limits voters’ choices and contributes to lower voter
4 participation.

5 (4) It is in the public interest to examine Rhode Island’s voting method and consider
6 comprehensive reforms that would expand the choices realistically available to voters, increase
7 participation, address the concerns of the major political parties, save money, and increase
8 accountability.

9 (b) The general assembly further finds and declares that instant runoff voting and other
10 advanced voting methods have the potential to:

11 (1) Expand the range of choices available to voters by allowing them to vote for candidates
12 of minor political parties or unaffiliated candidates without fear of giving an advantage to the 13 candidate they least prefer;

14 (2) Reduce both election administration costs and campaign expenditures by combining 15 primary general and general elections; and

20 instant runoff voting and other advanced voting methods.

22 method” means a voting method that allows an elector to indicate a preference for more than one
23 candidate in an election and that determines the winner of the election by majority vote. “Advanced 24 voting method” includes, but is not limited to, instant runoff voting, approval voting, range voting,
25 and proportional voting.

26 (c) The voter choice study commission shall consist of sixteen (16) members selected as 27 follows:

28 (1) Eight (8) members to be appointed by the speaker of the house, no more than five (5)

1 state at the time of their selection and at all times while they remain on said study group.

2 (d) Members of the voter choice study group shall be appointed no later than August 1,
3 2012.

5 (1) Study advanced voting methods;

6 (2) Analyze the requirements for implementing advanced voting methods, including public
7 education, voting equipment and technology, ballot designs, the costs of conducting the pilot
8 project established by this chapter and using advanced voting methods in elections for state and
9 federal offices, and savings due to the elimination of primary general elections;

10 (3) Determine the level of public support for a change in voting methods;

11 (4) Review the experience of other states in conducting elections using advanced voting
12 methods;

13 (5) Recommend statutory changes to implement advanced voting methods in elections for 14 state and federal offices to be held in the state in 2014;

15 (6) Make recommendations on making all voting systems used in the state compatible with 16 advanced voting methods by 2014, including a review of the availability and costs of necessary
17 voting equipment;

18 (7) Make recommendations to the governing bodies and designated election officials of 19 political subdivisions of the state on preparing to conduct an election using an advanced voting
20 methods; and

22 candidates.

26 legislative legal services shall provide staff assistance to the voter choice study commission.
