STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2025

SENATE RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF JOSEPH A. GILMARTIN

Introduced By: Senators DiMario, Lawson, LaMountain, Felag, Dimitri, Tikoian, Bell, Lauria, Mack, and McKenney

Date Introduced: January 28, 2025

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, It is with deep sadness that this Senate has learned of the passing of Joseph
2 A. Gilmartin. He was the beloved husband of Mary Barden, who serves as the Executive Director
3 of the National Education Association of Rhode Island; and

4 WHEREAS, Joseph A. Gilmartin was born in Providence, the son of the late Joseph T.
5 Gilmartin, III, and Betty Lou Gilmartin. Mr. Gilmartin was a gifted history teacher with the North 6 Kingstown public schools and was widely admired by his students and their parents for his 7 passion for teaching history and making a positive difference in the lives of so many of his 8 students. His pupils left his classrooms more knowledgeable about the world they live in, how the 9 past shapes current and future events, and better prepared to be successful adults and to make 10 positive contributions to their communities and to succeed in life; and

11 WHEREAS, Joseph Gilmartin loved sports. He enjoyed playing baseball and was a 12 highly successful football, baseball, basketball and hockey coach at various North Kingstown 13 public schools and at Bishop Feehan High School. He was a very accomplished coach who 14 received numerous awards in recognition of his outstanding success as a coach, including several 15 Coach of the Year acknowledgements from multiple organizations; and

16 WHEREAS, Joseph Gilmartin's greatest success was as the head football coach at North 17 Kingstown High School, taking what once was a moribund program and turning it into one of 18 champions. Thanks to Coach Gilmartin, the Skippers compiled an outstanding 30-5 record in 19 league play from 2013 to 2017, and captured their first undisputed Division II Super Bowl
20 Championship in 2017. He retired from coaching in 2019 after winning an unprecedented three

1 straight championship trophies; and

2 WHEREAS, Joseph Gilmartin was also an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed spending time 3 communing with nature and a devoted fisherman who enjoyed spending time fishing in both 4 Rhode Island and Alaska. He was also a member of the Rhode Island Shellfisherman's 5 Association; and

6 WHEREAS, In addition to his wife, Mary K. Barden, Mr. Gilmartin leaves behind his 7 children, Joseph, Theresa, and Benjamin Gilmartin. He was the beloved brother of Linda 8 Hancock, Judy Gilmartin, Robyn Gilmartin, and the late Patricia Ponte. He also leaves behind 9 numerous nieces, nephews and cousins; and

10 WHEREAS, Joseph A. Gilmartin's passing is a tragic loss for his loving family, many 11 friends, and the North Kingstown community. He was a bright, shining light and a force for good 12 who made a positive difference in the lives of his students, many friends, and his loved ones, and 13 he will long live on in the hearts and memories of all who knew him; now, therefore be it

14 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby expresses condolences 15 to the Gilmartin Family on the passing of Joseph A. Gilmartin; and be it further

16 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 17 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to Mary Barden, Joseph Gilmartin, Theresa 18 Gilmartin, and Benjamin Gilmartin.
