Date Introduced: January 23, 2026

Referred To: Senate Finance

1 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island legislature established the Commission on Prejudice and 2 Bias (the commission) in 1981, in order to study all forms of prejudice, bias, or hatred in this 3 State and to revise and codify, if possible, all laws relating to all forms of prejudice, bias, or 4 hatred; and

5 WHEREAS, This diverse seventeen (17) member commission is dedicated to tackling the 6 persistent issues of bigotry in Rhode Island and includes State legislators, gubernatorial appointed 7 community leaders, Attorney General-appointed members, and law enforcement representatives; 8 and

9 WHEREAS, The commission is a prominent and necessary channel of communication, 10 collaboration, trust-building and understanding between legislators, law enforcement, and the 11 communities they are sworn to serve and protect; and

12 WHEREAS, The commission provides hate crime training mandated by Rhode Island 13 General Law § 42-28.2-8.1 for all law enforcement academies; and

15 enforcement, victim's advocates, and community groups pursuant to Rhode Island General Law §
16 42-28-46; and

8 once relied on no longer enable the execution of the commission's mission statement; and

9 WHEREAS, Despite its proven success, the commission's operations have been hindered 10 by diminishing Federal and State funding sources, such as grants from the Victims of Crime Act, 11 the U.S. Bureau of Justice Assistance, and the Rhode Island Department of Administration, which 12 are no longer sufficient to meet the demands of reporting and studying all forms of prejudice and 13 hatred in Rhode Island; and

14 WHEREAS, The commission serves on behalf of all Rhode Islanders, is a statutorily 15 created body, and the thorough execution of its duties and responsibilities is only possible with 16 the appropriate level of resources; now, therefore be it
