STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2026

SENATE RESOLUTION

JOYOUSLY CELEBRATING "WORLD GREEK LANGUAGE DAY IN THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND" AS PROCLAIMED BY UNESCO

Introduced By: Senators Raptakis, Gallo, Kallman, Euer, Burke, Ciccone, Patalano, Urso, LaMountain, and Quezada

Date Introduced: March 11, 2026

Referred To: Placed on the Senate Consent Calendar

1           WHEREAS, On November 12, 2025, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and 2 Cultural Organization (UNESCO), a specialized United Nations agency that promotes 3 international cooperation in education, science, culture and communication to build peace and 4 foster sustainable development, unanimously declared February 9, 2026, to be “World Greek 5 Language Day”; and

6           WHEREAS, On February 9, 2026, the Permanent Mission of Greece to the United 7 Nations hosted an event in celebration of World Greek Language Day in which the speakers 8 highlighted the many important contributions of the Greek language to international dialogue and 9 communication as well as its important contributions to global culture; and

10           WHEREAS, This important event was opened by the Permanent Representative of 11 Greece to the United Nations, Ambassador Aglaia Balta, who spoke about “the deep and lasting 12 imprint of the Greek Language”, and emphasized that “Language is not just a tool of 13 communication but a bridge of understanding”; and

14           WHEREAS, UNESCO explained in its explanatory note when it declared February 9, 15 2026, to be “World Greek Language Day”, that “Language is a carrier of culture, an ark of 16 values, concepts and identity, an instrument of expression and creation, a bridge of 17 communication, understanding and consensus, and among the thousands of languages, Greek 18 possesses an unbroken continuity of 40 centuries of oral tradition and 35 centuries of written 19 tradition, making it the longest continuously spoken and written language in Europe”; and

1           WHEREAS, For the orthodox world, the Greek Language is a crucial and vital key to 2 understanding, as Ecumenical Patriarch Bartolomew states, “what is perhaps the greatest 3 intellectual paradise in the world, where lie the great and unique works that have left their mark 4 on the course of world civilization, the Homeric epics, the Tragedies, the Platonic dialogues, the 5 Aristotelian corpus, the New Testament, and the writings of the Greek Fathers”; now, therefore 6 be it

7           RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby joyously celebrates 8 “World Greek Language Day” in the State of Rhode Island, as proclaimed by UNESCO; now, 9 therefore be it

10          RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 11 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the Greek Ambassador to the United Nations, 12 Aglaia Balta, Antonis Alexandridis, Ambassador of Greece to the United States and to His 13 Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America.
