Instruction shall be given by a person eligible for a teacher's certificate issued under the authority of the state board of regents- and/or certified to teach motorcycle safety classes by completion of a course of instruction recognized by the Community College of Rhode Island. No person teaching classroom or on-the-road instruction under this section shall own, be employed by, or be associated with a commercial driving motorcycle riding school.

(b) Motorcycle driver education programs shall be available to any eligible resident applicant holding a valid Rhode Island motor vehicle operator's license.

(c) The board of governors for higher education shall establish any fees that are deemed necessary to support this program.

(d) The board of governors for higher education and the office of higher education are authorized to establish regulations to further implement this section.

31-10.1-2. Learner's permit. -- (a) Upon applying for a first license to drive a motorcycle and after successfully completing a motorcycle driver education program conducted by the board of governors for higher education, through the Community College of Rhode Island pursuant to section 31-10.1-1.1 or a motorcycle driver education program approved by the board of governors for higher education conducted by any firm or organization using the curriculum of the Motorcycle Safety Foundation or other safety or educational organization that has developed a curriculum approved by the board of governors for higher education; and after satisfying the requirements of section 31-10.1-3, the administrator of the division of motor vehicles may issue a motorcycle learner's permit to take instruction in the operation of a motorcycle which entitles the holder to operate or drive a motorcycle on the public highway, other than limited access highway, as a learner, under the general supervision, and whether or not under the immediate control, of a licensed motorcycle operator, at least eighteen (18) years of age. A person who has been issued a learner's permit may not carry passengers other than the supervising driver on the motorcycle until the person has been licensed to operate a motorcycle.

(b) The following persons are eligible for a motorcycle learner's permit:

(1) A person who is at least sixteen (16) years old but less than eighteen (18) years old and has a limited provisional license or a full operator's license issued by the division of motor vehicles.

(2) A person who is at least eighteen (18) years old and has a license issued by the division of motor vehicles.

(c) The holder of a motorcycle learner's permit who has a limited provisional license may drive the motorcycle only at times when the license holder could drive a motor vehicle without supervision pursuant to section 31-10-14.

(d) A motorcycle learner's permit expires eighteen (18) months after it is issued.

31-10.1-3. Examination. -- (a) All applicants for a motorcycle, motor scooter, or motor-driven cycle license, except those exempted in this chapter, shall pass a written, vision, road sign, and road test as prescribed by the administrator of the division of motor vehicles in a vehicle supplied by the applicant.

(b) An applicant who within six (6) months of having been certified by the ~~department of elementary and secondary education~~ board of governors for higher education, through the Community College of Rhode Island as having passed a written examination, road sign, and road test administered by ~~that department,~~ the Community College of Rhode Island or a firm or organization approved by the board of governors for higher education pursuant to section 31-10.1-2 shall, upon completion of an eyesight test by the division of motor vehicles, be considered in compliance with this section."

Respectfully submitted,

REPRESENTATIVE MCNAMARA
